I shall not give the notice until this point is ascertained, because it has been announced twice & he fails. He can do more good than any other man with a certain class of Gallios. I shall be most happy to confer with you on the cause of the slave. Some things must be rectified which go wrong. If we can see you three together we may hope for some good from conference. Let me know definitely when to see you & appoint our operations. We can do nothing here for the Mass. Vigilance societies will not become auxiliary at present. If I take notice of Her Emerson's letter I shall take care not furnish an opiate to the consciences of such as he is. I have not yet decided what course to pursue. Let me hear from you soon —

Yours of Fidelity

61 I acknowledge the receipt of two letters from you; but the situation of my hand precludes me me from answering to the merits of either. I can scarcely hold a pen. As to your proposed visit to our societies in August I am certain that great good would be accomplished. I hope you will make your arrangements instantly for consecutive meetings in all this valley. If you and Birney & Stanton all come, you can hold meetings for two days in three places in this town. It is just as hot we want to make up an interest which flags. I have recently been at Amherst & lectured to a crowded audience who appeared deeply interested. I mentioned the proposed visit of yourself & others to these counties — they invited me to interest myself in the arrangements & secure a lecture or two for them. Please to write to Doctor Donovan & have the appointment made. I wish to know for a certainty if Mr Birney will be here
